If the information filled in is truthful and correct, the request will be processed within the time limit set out in the client documentation. In the case of credit/debit card withdrawals, it may take between 1 and 6 working days for the funds to be credited. Once the order has been processed, it may take several working days for the bank institution with which the customer has an account to credit the account.

(Usually, it takes 1 to 3 business days for domestic payments, up to 5 business days for foreign payments). The company does not charge any fees or commissions for withdrawals. Any fees charged by the client's bank or a third party are the sole responsibility of the client.

Before submitting this request, please ensure that you have sufficient funds in your trading account to avoid a margin drop that could jeopardize currently open trades.

The total amount you can withdraw to your credit/debit card must not exceed the total amount sent by that card. Other funds (i.e., trading profits) must be transferred using your bank account.

This request must be sent exclusively by e-mail to support@investingfox.com.

If necessary, the company can contact you by phone or email. Therefore, please check your email address provided in the registration regularly, including the spam tab carefully.
